

LAKE ARROWHEAD

Explore the Area

Lake Arrowhead is a beautiful master-planned mountain, lake and golfing community, ideally situated to offer an extraordinary lifestyle in a serene and natural setting. Located just 40 minutes from Atlanta, Lake Arrowhead is a sanctuary amidst the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains outside the historic town of Waleska, Georgia, but still close enough to the conveniences of a thriving international city.

ABOUT WALESKA & THE AREA

Named after a Cherokee Indian princess, Waleska exudes a charming college town ambiance, highlighted by a variety of cultural opportunities provided by the four-year liberal arts academic institution Reinhardt University. Reinhardt's intimate campus, including the Premier Cultural Arts Center, is the focal point of the historic village of Waleska and its storied downtown is dotted with quaint shops, antique venues and friendly eateries. Waleska is close to major interstates and the booming neighboring historic town of Canton, Georgia, with its myriad of opportunities for enjoyable dining, shopping, entertainment, culture and the new, state-of-the-art Northside-Cherokee Hospital.
